

THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor.
CICERO T. SUTTON, Associate Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 1881.

OWENSBORO has a boxing school.

The Hawesville jail has two deaf-mute inmates.

Mr. HARPER, the owner of the great racer TenBroek, has just refused $75,000 for him.

One night last week the editor of the Henderson News lost his hat. Draw your own conclusions.

A LOUISVILLE boy turned a plate of hot soup over which burned him so that he died in two days.

A son of Mr. W. W. Phipps, of Hopkinsville, bruised his hand slightly with a toy pistol about three weeks ago and in a few days died of lockjaw.

The Rockport Tunnel, on the P. & E. Railroad, that caved in about ten days ago has been repaired, and trains have been passing through for a few days.

For the sake of his modesty we won't give his name, but this is what he says: "Equine photographs and biographical sketches supplied at this office in the highest style of the art."

The Hopkinsville Republican has in its possession a paper printed May 28th, 1824. That is time. This office has a paper published January 4th, 1890, and what is more, it is in mourning for G. Washington, Esq. Next.

Through the influence of Senator Beck, Kentucky got $200,000 allowed on the eve of the last session, to reimburse her for money expended for arming, equipping and transporting troops during the late war. Beck is good enough Senator for us, and we hope to see him returned.

War between Greece and Turkey is said to be inevitable, and if it does come almost the whole of Europe is likely to be drawn into the struggle. The Turks as a nation ought to be kicked back into Asia, from whence they came. They are clearly an Asiatic race and have no business in Europe.

There was a brief cabinet session yesterday, and if they done anything it has not yet transpired. — Evansville Courier.

They ought to have made an appropriation sufficient to send the editor of the Courier to a grammar school long enough to learn the past tense of the verb do.

MAHONASKS the Republican Senators, as a part of the bargain by which they bought him over, to elect his ex-Confederate friend, Riddleberger, to the position of Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate. The Democrats should nominate a Union soldier and thus the Republicans would have to complete their bargain and sale with Mahone by voting for a Confederate soldier against a Federal soldier.

STRAVED — From the Democratic party, a little toy mule, readjusted on regulation springs and saddled with a Virginia Senatorship. When last seen he was in the Republican stable with his nose in the government crib. If the Senatorship should be returned to the original owners, the felonious party claiming to be innocent purchasers, will be left in undisputed possession of the vicious animal and no questions asked. Otherwise the guilty parties will be prosecuted to the extent of the law. — Memphis.

Or all men in Washington, the favorite with the negroes is Robert Lincoln, the new Secretary of War. They love him simply because he is the son of the old man, and they carry their love to such an extreme that the poor fellow is almost worn out by the constant hand-shaking which he is compelled to undergo. This same hand-shaking is, by the way, the only recognition Samba gets from the Federal Government or any member of it.

READ the "Drunkard's Lament," by R. Campbell, on the first page of this issue. Mr. Campbell has written several poems for the HERALD hinging on the temperance question, every one of which is excellent. He seems to be inspired on that subject and writes an able poet. His pen-pictures of the effects of drunkenness portrayed in these poems have never been excelled and rarely, if ever, equalled.

Vice-President ARTHUR is the first for many years who has been called on to do anything in an official capacity. The others have merely had to sit around and look dignified as the presiding officer of the Senate and rarely raise his voice for anything, but this time he will be called on to decide every question of any importance which comes up before the Senate. The talk about his nativity has about died out, but if he is a Canadian he has more power than the biggest citizen of the United States, the President alone excepted.

THE report is being circulated, and indeed, has gained considerable credence, that Mr. E. C. Hubbard, of this place, has received from the President the appointment as District Attorney for the District of Kentucky. No mistake could be made which would be further from the facts in the case than this. Not only has no appointment been made, but we understand that Mr. Hubbard does not desire the position for himself at all, but is in Washington in the interest of a friend. It is our opinion that President Garfield owes as much, if not more, to E. C. Hubbard as to any other man in the State, but as political gratitude does not seem to be a part of Garfield's composition, it is quite possible that Mr. Hubbard will be left out in the cold. He has made quite a reputation as a lawyer, and there is certainly no one we would rather see promoted, and he deserves recognition, but we fear that there is nothing in the national crib for him.

The State Medical Society, of Kentucky, will hold its annual meeting in Louisville on the 30th, 31st and 1st of April.

The Greenbackers claim that Windom, Garfield's Secretary of the Treasury, is a Greenbacker and will expand the volume of money by using the hoarded coin in the Treasury to pay U. S. bonds so far as it will go.

GARFIELD recently struck Conkling a little spot in the nomination of Robertson for Collector of the port of New York. Robertson is strongly anti-Conkling, and this is quite a blow to the hopes of Grand Duke Roscoe.

VENNOR is still all right. Another storm, the "worst of the season," has just visited the North-Western portion of the country, blocking the railroads with snow and doing a great deal of damage to traffic and travel. The end is not yet.

GIVE us a rest. We don't want an extra session of Congress. Nobody else wants it. It can do no good. It can only do harm. The country can't afford it. Already there too much law-making and we are tired of it. Give us a rest.

MR. VIRGIL HUNTER, late Deputy Clerk of the Court of Appeals, has announced himself a candidate for Clerk of that Court. Thos. C. Jones is a candidate for re-election and Samuel M. Gaines is also a candidate. How many more we shall have time alone can tell.

The famous "32nd" has been to the front again. Russell R. Peeler, of Michigan, was nominated by the Republicans, of his district, for Circuit Judge, on the 32nd ballot. Garfield will appoint that man to a District Judgeship before his term is out. See if he don't.

It is said by some that this country can not float a three per cent. bond. May be it can't, but France recently asked a loan of $200,000,000 at three per cent, and received offers of three times that amount. Is our national credit not as good as that of France? Hayes did not seem to think so.

The colored brethren of Elizabethtown have been fishing for men and women too for a week or two and the meeting closed Sunday, the 29th inst., by the baptism of 62 converts. The colored division of the regiment of sin is surely becoming weak by this time as this is not the first such revival Elizabethtown has had.

It seems that the Republican Senators in buying up Mahone have bitten off a larger mouthful than they can well masticate. He is a repudiator, and a part of the bargain and sale is the election of his Republican friends and thus the Republicans are made to endorse repudiation although they have heretofore denounced it so glibly.

OPTIMISM presents the non-sectarian side of the educational question in a very forcible and logical manner on our first page. As we have said before, this is a subject fraught with interest to the American people, and one that, according to certain developments which are fast being made, is soon to be presented in a stronger form than on paper, i. e., at the polls. Read the article and profit thereby.

THE Louisville Democrat has been very well satisfied with Garfield until the past few days. It is now of the unanimous opinion that Hancock should have been elected. Its reasons for the conclusion are that Hancock is of a robust nature and can go to sleep at a moment's notice, Garfield is weakening from loss of sleep and meals caused by the persistent attacks of the legions of office-seekers.

S. H. FAIRMAN & SON, 152 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, have been constantly engaged in the Newspaper Advertising Agency business for thirty years and are, to-day, on the most amicable terms with the press as well as the advertisers, of any firm we know of engaged in the business. They deal fairly and squarely with the press, advertisers and themselves, and hence their popularity and continued success.

AN attorney of Washington City has sued Carl Schurz for $200,000 damages. While Schurz was Secretary of the Interior, from political reasons, he denied the attorney access to the department thus cutting him off from information needed in his law practice. This action was despicably mean and Schurz should be made to pay fine damages for such an outrage. Is he a fair sample of the officers of the God and morality party?

AMONG all the kicking that is being done the manufacturers of writing paper should apply their hoof vigorously against the present postal card system. It is found by a careful computation of the number of cards annually used that they take the place of envelopes and paper to the amount of $12,000,000. This, however, is a vast saving to the paper for a loss of $12,000,000 to the people makes represents an actual net gain to the consumer of at least $30,000,000.

THE Breckenridge News has been claiming that that county has given birth to all the great men of the nation, but Gruebe last week knocked the bottom out of the tub in which great Breckenridge county had proposed to sail on to glory by announcing to an awe-struck and trembling world that Dr. Mary Walker, the great hanger-on of McCarty, of Elizabethtown, the personal friend and private correspondent of Munday, of the Owensboro Messenger and Examiner, was born in that county! Of depth of iniquity and breadth of mendacity! To your tents, oh, Israel. In other words, we conjure the honest citizens of Breckenridge county to rise up even as one man and throw him out from among them. We now pause to wonder what will be the next fruit of the wonderful imagination of the News man.

The Bank of France has suspended specie payments. The effects of the suspension will not be felt in this country.

From our correspondent at Owensboro we learn that the Republicans were to hold a convention last Monday night to nominate a municipal ticket. This brings up a square party issue.

The latest banner for an exchange is from the Owensboro Journal, edited and published by Mrs. E. M. Nugent, formerly a citizen of Hartford. The Messenger and Examiner had better look out as it now has competition.

The Sunday Argosy gets mad because the Louisville canal is out of repair and wants Uncle Sam to send an army of workmen down to "fix the dam thing." This smacks of profanity in we hear so little of it that we are hardly qualified to judge.

The gentle lawyer is abroad in Henderson. The founder of P. S. Holloway was broken open last week and a chest of fine tools carried away. The thief is no doubt industrious but has a lack of honesty which is painful for the Hendersonian to behold.

CALIFORNIA has just got through with a Buford case. Kalloho, who killed DeYoung, was acquitted on the ground of insanity, was tried again and the result was acquittal on the ground of self defense. The Californians are for the most part indignant.

JAY GORDON's grasping fingers can never be at rest. He is now trying to get his claws on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. His south-western line terminate at St. Louis and his western at Chicago and to reach the seaboard he is compelled to run over other roads. This he does not like to do and will either buy the roads he wants or build new ones. What a nice thing it is to be rich.

SCORE one more for Brother Jonathan. Commodore R. W. Shufeldt, of the U. S. Navy, is now commander of the whole navy of China. This is regarded as the precursor of the final breaking up of the power of England in the East. The Viceroy of China, Len Chang, asked that the appointment be allowed, and Secretary Blaine being in favor of it, it was done, and now a subject of the Yankee nation is in command of the entire fleet of the celestial empire. Whoo! wh!

The Readjuster clubs of Virginia are meeting all over the State and denouncing in the most unqualified terms the Senatorial traitor, Mahone. They give him every assurance that they will oppose him by every means in their power and that he has nothing to hope for from them. This to the average Democrat is too good, but is of no use now in helping them to attain the mastery in the Senatorial fights. It only shows that the party which caused his election is not in sympathy with the Arnold of the day.

THE Russian peasants have commenced to make pilgrimages to the spot where the Czar fell when the bomb that destroyed his life exploded. They will ever regard the place as sacred like the ancient Christians did the tomb of Christ or as the Mussulmans do the temple of Mohammed at Mecca. They regard the fallen Czar as a martyr to the cause of good government, and as they loved him while alive they will adore him now that he is dead. Only the nobles and merchants despise his memory, and they only because he freed twenty-three millions of slaves and thus took away a great part of their income.

THE immigration from foreign countries still continues to increase. Last year there was a net immigration of 131,000 from England alone, while the emigration from England to Australia fell off from 35,000 to 18,000. We are the coming man in the way of taking up all the surplus population of Europe, and if Kentucky will only spread her arms before them she may reap the benefits. We must give them encouragement in order to have them come and occupy our large areas of uncultivated land. The only drawback to the influx of the sturdy yeomanry of the old countries is that a good many of them do not care about coming here to be made subjects for pistol practice, snipe hunting, etc.

GARFIELD's last utterance in regard to the Mormon question is that "Polygamy must and shall be stamped out." We must say that is the correct thing to speak, but the main thing is to do it. Declarations are often easily made, as no doubt was this one, but will the President have the requisite backbone to carry out his design?

He has, how is he going about it? Is he going to do it by a proclamation? A thousand things and ways suggest themselves to the mind, but none of them seem to be at all practicable. Mormonism has been established too long to be dissipated by a single word, even though it comes from the Chief Magistrate of the nation. Had it been judiciously handled in its infancy it could have been easily crushed but it has been suffered to live so long that its corroding influences reach so deep and so far that the most powerful remedies will have to be applied in order to remove the foul ulcer from the fair form of our body politic. It is the desire of a vast majority of our thinking, law-abiding people to have every trace of Mormonism obliterated, but as yet no plan has been offered for a which we may reasonably expect anything.

OUR distinguished fellow-citizen, Hon. E. D. Walker, has again won golden opinions as a criminal lawyer. He was engaged for the defense in the trial in the Mulhensberg Circuit Court of the Commonwealth vs. W. G. Fleming, indicted for murder. The jury found a verdict, not guilty of murder but manslaughter and fixed his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for two years. The mildness of the verdict is attributable to the influence of Mr. Walker's powerful speech.

The prisoner was well satisfied as no indictment was asked for. The court in very complimentary terms of the speech. The Commercial correspondent also lauded the effort very highly and the Mulhensberg Echo has this to say:

"Saturday morning the court-house was packed and Hon. E. D. Walker commenced his great speech for the defense. Court did not adjourn at noon nor did the crowd of eager listeners. Mr. Walker spoke five hours and the unanimous verdict is that his speech was the ablest and most ingenious ever delivered in a murder case in the Greenville court-house. It had a telling effect on the jury. The leniency of the verdict created a general surprise. One person having been just convicted for fifteen months for a slight stabbing and another for eighteen months for larceny, it was supposed that a man indicted for murder would hardly get less than ten years, or five at the lowest."

Mr. Walker is one of the ablest criminal lawyers in this part of the State. We note the following sales of Kentucky tobacco in Evansville, Ind., last Friday:

It is quite probable that the Official Messenger in this case made a truer announcement than he intended. It is certainly King's will that there be no Emperors, Kings or Potentates, but that man shall be free as the morning air; shall not be compelled to do the bidding of tyrannical rulers, but shall be his own ruler, have opinions of his own and date to express them.

Inspiration.

As the sunshine descends from heaven to inspire nature, as the dew and the rain descend from an unknown power above us, inspiring the flower which fills the air with fragrance, so does an inspiration come over man. It thrills his soul with a feeling of immortality. It touches his soul and causes him to respond, to speak or write the words that come, as it were, from the very bottom of his heart. It makes him feel that there is a power above him which he must obey. We behold inspiration in a rose bud, in the breath of Spring, in the sweet breeze of Summer, as well as in the chilly blasts of Winter. All nature is inspired, and to say that man should not be is but folly. — Beck's Democrat.

We clip the following from the Great West, published at Denver, Colorado:

"A correspondent writes from Mayfield, Graves county, Ky., speaking of mines and mining enterprises of this State, and of the indifference of many people in that locality as to enterprise anywhere says:

"There is not much enterprise in this portion of Kentucky, or at least there is not much of a disposition to inquire into any opportunities for investment outside of the State. In fact, two-thirds of the people in this vicinity do not know that Colorado is a State, nor in which direction it is to be found."

We appeal to Kentuckians and can only hold them up to disprove what the sore-headed, contemptible, unpatriotic, blatherskite of Mayfield has to say of Kentucky. If the people of Kentucky are satisfied with their homes and attached to the State of their nativity or adoption are they to be branded as unenterprising or ignorant? As to the existence of the State of Colorado we are of the opinion that the "two-thirds" of the people spoken of are fully as well informed as the worthy citizen of Mayfield. Nor is the editor of the Great West any more entitled to the respect of Kentucky people, and especially of Kentucky Democrats than is the sealawag who writes to the paper. He attributes the state of things which are said to exist by the aforementioned sealawag to "hardshell Democracy." Could anything be more unreasonable or further from the facts than such an assertion? Where can a better set of people be found than those who inhabit the "dark and bloody ground?" Certainly not in the backwoods of Colorado either the chamberlain who edits the Great West or those who do not know him as something or somebody. As a writer and thinker he is undoubtedly good, but as for political fairness and stability there is a great deficiency. For our part we would much rather be a hard-shell Democrat than the political turncoat referred to.

Hymenial.

T. R. Demaree, G. W. C. T. of the I. O. G. T. of this State, will lead to the altar, on next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Baptist church, Owensboro, Kentucky, Miss Carrie D. Miller, of Owensboro. Thanks for an invitation to be present.

Our Platform.

No greater or more foolish waste of money was ever made than sending it away to convert the heathen to Christianity so long as this country is full of persons who can, in wickedness, double discount all the heathens in the world. It was Christ who said, "Let the dead bury the dead." In other words, let the heathens alone to themselves. — Great West.

God's Will Was Done.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 13. The Official Messenger makes the following announcement:

"God's will has been done! At 3:25 o'clock this (Sunday) afternoon the Almighty called the Emperor to Himself."

Now if God's will was done by the nihilists in killing the Emperor, in the name of Heaven let the Russian people acquiesce in it, and not punish but promote those who were instruments to carry out God's will!

It is quite probable that the Official Messenger in this case made a truer announcement than he intended. It is certainly King's will that there be no Emperors, Kings or Potentates, but that man shall be free as the morning air; shall not be compelled to do the bidding of tyrannical rulers, but shall be his own ruler, have opinions of his own and date to express them.

AN APT DEFINITION OF A NEW WORD.

By Hon. Witty Gruebe, LL. D.

From Webster's Unabridged, Edition of 1882. MA-HONE, v. t. [imp. & p. p. MA-HONED, p. p. & c. u. MA-HONING.] (Supersedes the obsolete word betray.)

1. To deliver into the hands of an enemy by treachery or fraud, in violation of trust; to give up treacherously or faithlessly; as, a Senator betrayed his state.

2. To violate the confidence of, by disclosing a secret, or that which was intrusted; to injure by treachery.

3. To disclose or discover, as "some" thing intended to be kept secret, or which prudence would conceal.

4. To mislead, or expose to inconvenience or loss.

5. To show or to indicate;—said of what is not obvious at first view, or would otherwise be concealed.

6. To fail in respect to reliance to be placed in or upon, as,

7. When I rise, I shall find my legs betraying me.

The City Councils.

Proceedings of the Claytonian Society, March 21, 1881.

The Society was called to order at 7 p. m. by W. P. Roll, President.

After essays, declamations and reading came the debate. We had a very spirited contention as to whether the affirmative or negative should have the decision. The subject was, "Resolved, that superstition has caused more calamity to the human family than ambition." The gentlemen on the affirmative being somewhat superstitious, and those on the negative full of ambition, specially on that occasion, caused the judges to render an ambitious decision.

Our subject for debate next Friday evening is, "Resolved, that the works of man are more pleasing to the senses than the works of nature." Champions—Alva Kains, affirmative; Cleve Condit, negative.

A very interesting feature of our society is the discussion of motions introduced for the good of the society. Sometimes the debate on these points waxed very warm, the speaker becoming very eloquent, which often calls forth much applause from the entire body.

W. P. Roll, President.
J. W. Bishop, Secretary.

What All Say.

We clip the following from the Bowling Green Gazette, and can cheerfully endorse every word of it:

THE STANDFORD.

While in Louisville last week we visited the new "Standford" hotel, recently opened on the corner of Tenth and Broadway, with Mr. Thos. A. Theobald, formerly of the Fifth Avenue, as manager. It is certainly the most elegant house in the city. The building and every piece of furniture, carpets, bedding, etc., are entirely new, and of the most fashionable design. Everything in the building was manufactured to order and solely for the Standford. We were shown through the house and found that but little distinction was made in the furnishing of the rooms as regards elegance and costliness. Handsome paper adorns the walls, and the floors are covered with Brussels carpet of a beautiful figure, while each room contains everything necessary to comfort. There is a double parlor, besides a lady's and gentleman's, reading-room and billiard chamber. The latter contains a handsome set of ebony furniture, and has adjoining it a private parlor for the reception of brides' callers. In fact, the hotel possesses every convenience that may be found in a modern first-class house. The table is unsurpassed by any in the city. The most interesting feature of the establishment, however, is the extreme low rates, $2 per day. Try it.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Messrs. Semmon, McGee & Co., proprietors of the Pike Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, Ky., make the following report of their tobacco market for the week ending March 20, 1881:

Sales during week, 1,519; month, 5,857; year, up to this time, 16,532.

Sales during same week in 1880, 1,318; month, 5,982; 1880, up to this time, 15,287.

Sales during same week in 1879, 1,080; month, 4,252; 1879, up to this time, 10,419.

Sales during same week in 1878, 986; month, 5,909; 1878, up to this time, 17,021.

Receipts this week, 1,480, against 1,200 last week. Receipts this week in 1880, 1,200 hids.

Since Tuesday our market has been very quiet, with prices some easier on all grades of dark leaf and lugs; Burleys higher.

Respectfully,
SEMMON, MCGEE & CO.
Rockport.

Mulhensberg county has 4,000 idiots according to the Echo. That's a big list of subscribers for a little county paper.

Our town lost two of her citizens this week. B. J. Cheshire, who has been sawing for Harry Jackson the last year, left with his family on board the steamer Louisville Sunday morning for Louisville. Daniel Tichenor moved the same day to the Bell farm near Lewisburg, Logan county.

V. P. Sherrod contemplates putting up a distillery in Mulhensberg county. Guess he feels sorry for those people, and wishes to help them pay their railroad tax.

Trains are passing through the tunnel by a tight squeeze. The damage is being repaired by retimbering the broken part. The railroad company had just completed the job of retimbering the tunnel when the west end gave way, having worked at it ever since about last October.

Green Phipps, a cross-eyed-black-as-the-spread-of-a-school-teacher, was engaged to teach the school children of this place, but after a few months' trial

We are authorized to announce Judge VAN B. RAINS, a candidate to represent Ohio County in the next General Assembly of Kentucky, subject to a Democratic Convention, should one be called.

PERSONAL.

Mr. P. White Edson has accepted a position as salesman in the dry goods and clothing store of E. Small.

Prof. Ludwig returned from Owensboro last Thursday. He reports things lively in that place, but likes Hartford somewhat better.

Mr. F. W. Griffin, Mrs. J. L. Collins and Mr. T. L. Griffin and wife are visiting relatives in Elizabethtown this week.

Mr. John Yost, telegraph operator at Muhlenberg Mines, was in town Sunday and Sunday night. Hartford has some attractions for Johnny.

Our young friend, J. C. Daniel, of Spring Lick, was in town several days this week. We had the pleasure of a call from him.

Miss Lizzie Walker, one of Hartford's beautiful and accomplished young ladies, was the guest of Miss Lulu Showers last Saturday. Her visit here was short and fleeting, yet it will long be remembered. It is hoped she will come again soon and remain longer. -Elizabethtown News.

Still Wears the Badge.

E. F. Forbes, Undertaker at Fordville, has worn when in full dress the Murphy badge since March 9th, 1878. Ed. is the only one in Fordville who wears this badge. He claims, as he understands the order, that to violate it is a near relation to perjury.

Edmund Curd.

Edmund Curd was born in Jessamine county, Ky., on the 28th day of November, 1802, and died at his home in Charleston, Ill., Monday, March 14, 1881, being in his 78th year at the time of his death. Mr. Curd was many years ago a citizen of Hartford. He was uncle of Judge R. S. Mosely, of this place.

From the undersigned, in Hartford, about three months ago, a young red milk cow and sucking calf. Any one giving information in regard to their above cow and calf will be paid for their trouble. F. M. HEVERLY.

"I'm All Piled Out."

Is a common complaint. If you feel so, get a package of Kidney Wort and take it, and you will at once feel its tonic power. It renews the healthy action of the kidneys, bowels, and liver, and thus restores the natural life and strength to the weary body. It can now be had in either dry or liquid form, and in either way is always prompt and efficient in action. -New Bedford Standard.

Nothing on Earth so Good.

Certainly a strong opinion, said one of our reporters to whom the following was detailed by Mr. Henry Kasechop, with Mr. Geo. E. Miller, 418 Main street, this city: I suffered so badly with rheumatism in my leg last winter that I was unable to attend to my work, being completely helpless. I heard of St. Jacobs Oil and bought a bottle, after which I felt greatly relieved. With the use of the second bottle I was completely cured. In my estimation there is nothing on earth so good for rheumatism as St. Jacobs Oil. It sets like a charm. -Worcester Mass. Spy.

The Best is the Cheapest.

The Oliver Chilled Plow is the best and consequently the cheapest plow to be had. It has the lightest draught, and wears longer than any plow made. No time is lost carrying the plow to the shop to get sharpened or pointed. We furnish points ready made and adjusted, at 40 cents each. Try the Oliver Chilled and save time and money and get better.

Suitcase.

Mr. Cate Forman, a farmer, living near Sulphur Springs, in this county, came to his death on Thursday last from the effects of a dose of laudanum administered by his own hand.

He is said to have been drinking for a few days before his death, and had tried to sober off. He of course felt the usual effect of his debauch and thought he needed something of the nature of a sedative to quiet his nerves, and told his daughter to give him a dose of laudanum. She obeyed, and put a small quantity in a glass which he took and then told her to give him the vial containing the liquid. She did so, and, putting it to his lips, he drank the entire contents. The funeral took place Friday evening, March 18th.
